It's a Wonderful Life #3

Not -So-Average Joe

Matthew 1:18-24

Have you ever felt insignificant compared to people in your family tree?

Could you imagine what it would be like to raise the Son of God? What do you think would be some of the unique things about that? How about some funny things?

If Joseph was unable to live in the tension between truth and grace, what do you think the outcome would have been?

None of us live in perfect tension; what side do you lean to, grace or truth? Does that lean change with certain people?

Craig said, "Tension is in our mind, not our knee." Talk about a time when tension was a knee-jerk reaction for you. How did it work out?

One way we handle tension appropriately is by giving grace publicly and truth privately. Have you experienced this? Ever experience it in reverse?

Are there any relationships right now where there is not tension because you are living all truth or all grace? What do you need to do this week to bring that relationship into healthy tension?
