SUNDAY TALK NOTES

Teach us to Pray #1

Overview

Craig Piefer

January 7, 2018

Matthew 6:9-13, Luke 11:1-4

Have you ever encountered someone who did something so well you were compelled to ask them to teach you? If yes, what was that experience like? If no, what has kept you from asking?

Very few people interact with the Lord's Prayer without some history. What is your history with the Lord's Prayer? Helpful, not helpful, rigid, religious, required, inspiring…

The Lord's Prayer is the answer to the question "Lord, teach us to pray?" Have you, in the past, interacted with it differently than that?

When looking at the Lord's Prayer as structure and skeleton, how does it compare to your usual prayers? Are there pieces you are missing in your daily prayer according to how Jesus taught us to pray?

Take time this week to paraphrase in your own word the Lord's Prayer.
