What is your daily bread? What do you need each day?

In the order of your prayer, is it hard to not start with your "grocery list?" Has that "grocery list" ever caused anxiety?

If you acknowledge the intimacy and reverence as well as the will of God first, how else could that impact your prayer time?

When you receive what you have not asked for do you take credit? Can you see that by simply asking for your needs reminds you where they really come from?

Do you ask for "bonus" in your prayers? How does it make you feel? In the past, if God has said yes to "bonus" prayers, was that bonus a blessing to more than just you? How?

How has God used you in the past to give someone else daily bread? How did that feel? How can you do it again this week?
